Salem Democrats Planning Big Rally Here Tuesday

PETER WITT TO MAKE ADDRESS IN HIGH SCHOOL

Former Congressman also On Program For Gathering

AFFAIR AWAITED WITH INTEREST

Meeting Will Be First
Of Series To Be Held
In County

The first rally of Salem Democrats will be held in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, members of the Salem Democratic committee, under whose auspices the meeting will be held, announced today.

An interesting program is being arranged, and a large gathering of both Democrats and Republicans from Columbiana county and the entire district is expected to attend. Peter Witt, Cleveland councilman and noted authority on transportation problems, has been secured by the Salem committee as the leading speaker. Witt has been traction commissioner in Cleveland for many years, and is frequently called in by the national government concerning national traffic affairs. He is one of Ohio's leading political leaders and a lawyer of note.

Ex-Congressman John J. Whitacre, of Waynesburg, candidate for election as congressman of the 18th district, will also be on the program as speaker. Interest in Whitacre's speech in this district is high, due to his recent declaration in a letter to the Ohio W. C. T. U. for the repeal of the 18th amendment.

Final plans for the meeting will be made at a meeting of the committee at the office of Atty. Hugh E. Gleckler, Main st., Saturday night.

This will be the first of a series of meetings to be held in Salem and Columbiana county during the next few weeks. County Democrats will be present at the meeting, but probably will not be included in the speaking program, except to say a few words following an introduction to the assembly.

Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston, President of Council Harry Gager, Service Director C. A. Cavanaugh and other members of the Democratic committee are arranging the program.

WITT ATTEMPTS TO SWING VOTES

La Follette Ballots Are Objective of Vet
Campaigner

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—A determined effort to swing the 357,000 votes cast for La Follette in Ohio in 1924 to Gov. Al Smith will be made by Peter Witt, veteran Cleveland political campaigner, it became known here today with an announcement from Witt that the National Democratic Campaign Fund committee had appropriated $3,000 for his stumping campaign in Ohio.

Witt said he would start on a tour of the state Monday and end up the Saturday before election with a speech in the public auditorium here.

His first speech will be delivered Monday in Youngstown. Witt said, and his week's itinerary includes a speech at Salem Tuesday; Warren Wednesday and Dayton Friday.

In 1924 La Follette carried the city of Cleveland by 5,000 votes but lost Cuyahoga county by 7,000 votes.

Tax Payments Are Given Extension Until January 20

Time for final payment of December taxes has been extended until Jan. 20 next according to a resolution adopted by the county commissioners. It has been the custom of the commissioners to grant such an extension, but the resolution was made a matter of record earlier than usual.

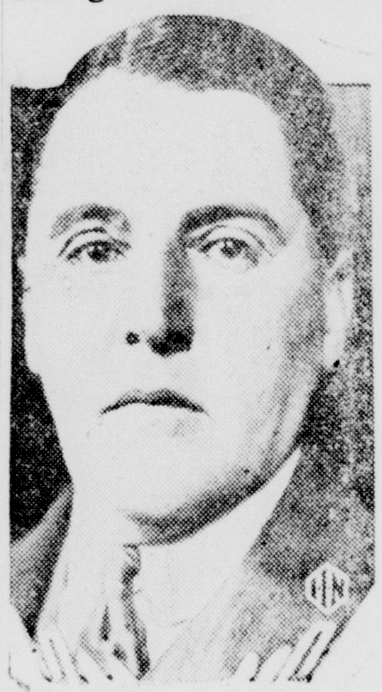

There will be some delay in working up the duplicate for the new tax term on account of numerous bond issues being placed before voters in a number of taxing districts at the November election.

Sebring Residence Damaged by Blaze

Sebring, Oct. 18.—An investigation is being made into the cause of a fire that damaged the home of C. L. Fairbanks, Indiana ave., to the extent of $1,000 Tuesday. The home is occupied by John Rogers.

According to Clara Smith, fire chief, it is believed that the fire may have started in a gas range in the kitchen. The kitchen was in flames when the department arrived, and the blaze had extended to another room. No one was in the house when the fire started.

Resigns Cabinet Post

Lord Birkenhead, secretary of state for India, who has resigned as a member of the British cabinet and probably will enter field of international finance to recoup his depleted fortunes. His resignation is regarded as a blow to the Conservative party.

GREAT OVATION GREET'S SMITH UPON ARRIVAL

Chicago Meets Nominee
With Demonstration;
Quiet Today

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Gov. Al Smith came back to big city sidewalks today after a week spent in rapid traveling through the cotton, corn and tobacco belt.

He is on the trail of the 29 electoral votes of Illinois, and he will stay on it for three days here in Chicago. Moreover, he is confident that he had a good chance to win with them three weeks hence despite the traditional Republicanism of the state.

Governor Smith was told by state leaders upon his arrival in Chicago that Democratic chances in Illinois are rosy. State Chairman Tom Donovan told him that for the first time in many years the Republican farmers' downstate, who always send a Republican presidential candidate to the Chicago city limits with an overwhelming majority, are off the G. O. P. reservation this year, and that this fact, coupled with Chicago's known weakness, can be relied upon to carry the state for him.

Leaders See Close Vote
Both Donovan and George N. Peek, Illinois farm leader, who was active in the promotion of the Lowden candidacy at the Kansas City convention, declared that Gov. Smith will come up to the Cook county line in November on even terms with Herbert Hoover, and that Cook county will give him a majority of 150,000 votes.

The Republicans, of course, publicly pooh-pooh these Democratic claims. But the Democratic leaders who welcomed Governor Smith to the state stoutly insist upon the (Continued on Page 5)

Myron Herrick Back In Cleveland Home

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—Myron T. Herrick U. S. ambassador to France, was back at his home here today, having returned yesterday from a visit to California. Ambassador Herrick flew to Chicago with Col. Charles A. Lindbergh when he left here a month ago. The ambassador said today he would continue his vacation at his home here until after election and then go to his office at Paris. He has represented the United States in France since 1912.

NO WORD FROM INTREPID FLYER ON OCEAN TRIP

Ship Without Floats Has

FUEL CARRIED FOR THIRTY-FIVE HOURS

Vessels Notified Daring
Britisher Aloft; Will Keep Vigil

London, Oct. 18.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon, 24 hours had elapsed since Commander H. C. MacDonald, the young British aviator "who would a Lindbergh be" hopped off at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, in his little De Havilland Moth plane to attempt a non-stop solo flight to Croydon air field and nothing had been heard of him.

MacDonald had planned to average 100 miles an hour, negotiating the 2,000 miles in about 20 hours. Failure of any ships to report sighting him has begun to cause fears for his safety.

The air ministry announced that it had received no news whatsoever as to the progress of fate of the aviator.

London, Oct. 18.—All England gasped today at the daring of Commander H. C. MacDonald, the intrepid British flyer who is now believed to be far out over the Atlantic in his attempt to span the ocean in a tiny 85-horsepower De Havilland moth plane.

Flying alone, MacDonald left Harbor Grace, Newfoundland at 1:20 p. m. (E. S. T.) yesterday with enough fuel aboard to keep his plane aloft about 35 hours.

MacDonald left here about five weeks ago with a mechanic and his crated plane. At that time he informed friends that he intended flying back in the middle of October.

Preparations Quiet
Quietly he went about his preparations after his arrival at Harbor Grace, and when he took the air yesterday, it was at first thought he was making a trial flight. However, when he failed to return after several hours, it was assumed that he had taken advantage of favorable weather to essay the trans-Atlantic hop.

His plane was fully loaded with fuel. Normally, the moth plane carries about 100 gallons but extra fuel tanks had been installed in MacDonald's plane to give it a flying radius estimated at from 3,000 to 3,500 miles. The small four cylinder motor consumes only six gallons an hour. The plane weighs only about 800 pounds fully loaded and its wing-spread is only 36 feet.

Alliance Man Held In Salem City Jail

Luther Leach, of Alliance, is being held in city jail in connection with the alleged robbery of a New Waterford man, said to have been assaulted and robbed last week by two colored men, on Depot st.

Leach was arrested Tuesday night by Alliance police at the request of Salem authorities, after John Berry had filed an affidavit charging Leach and Raymond Robinson, Salem, with highway robbery, according to the police report. Berry alleges Robinson and Leach stole $15 from him.

Robinson has left the city, police say, and has not been apprehended.

Government Warns Flappers to Beware of Chill Winter When Clad In Light Attire

Bureau Suggests That Ancient 'Heavies' Be Winter Garment

Washington, Oct. 18.—Night clubs, prohibition gin, loss of sleep from excessive business, social demands and other burning of the candle at both ends to meet the obligations of "America 1928" are threatening the health of modern girls, it was disclosed today by the U. S. public health service.

Research by experts showed that keeping up with the terrific pace-setters of modern society and business life is causing a slight increase in the tuberculosis rate among young women.

A warning was issued to flappers and other varieties of the feminine tribe to apply the brake to their social, school and business activities — to take plenty of time to eat and sleep — to wear enough clothes — or face physical and nervous breakdown.

Bishop Schrembs Is Victim of Robbers

Cleveland, Oct. 13.—Thieves who yesterday took a suitcase from the automobile of Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, bishop of the Cleveland Catholic diocese, were sought by police today. The grip contained a jeweled cross, valued at $2,000, a crozier, a pastoral staff, ermine robe and other vestments. The vestments and robe were recovered by police who found a battered suitcase on the west side here. A name on the suitcase afforded police their first clue and they are seeking a Chicago sailor and his companion.

SEWER SCANDAL MAY BE TRACED TO GOV. SMITH

Republicans Digging Into Fraud of Seven Years
Duration

New York, Oct. 18.—The Republican organization in New York state today launched a campaign to place responsibility for the $16,000,000 Queen's sewer scandal at the door of Gov. Alfred E. Smith.

Following the conviction yesterday in Long Island City of Maurice E. Connelly, resigned borough president of Queens, and Frederick B. Seely, former chief of the Queen's sewer bureau, Republican speakers dug into the seven years' history of alleged corruption and fraud of Queen's borough sewer extension for campaign material in Gov. Smith's greatest stronghold, Metropolitan New York.

A campaign pamphlet circulated by the Republican state committee declares that although Gov. Smith's attention was directed to the irregularities of the Queen's contracts by a special investigating committee of the state assembly as early as 1921, the inquiry which led to the indictment of Connelly and Seely, did not begin until December, 1927.

Charges that Queen's officials paid three and four times as much for sewer pipe as other cities, where the hub of the public protest, which forced the investigation by a special state commission.

Estimates of this "cut" between contractors and borough officials during the last eight years place the total at roughly $16,000,000.

John M. Phillips, lock-joint pipe dealer of Queens and a power in the Queen's borough city hall, was indicted with Connelly and Seely last June. All three were named for conspiracy to defraud the city of New York. Phillips died ten days later at Atlantic City.

Connelly was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary and fined $500. He immediately filed notice of appeal. Seely's sentence was deferred until Saturday.

Salem Youth Heads College Fraternity

Ralph Kircher, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kircher, Franklin ave., a senior at Ohio university, Athens, has been elected president of Alpha Delta Sigma, professional advertising fraternity.

This fraternity is the largest collegiate group of advertisers in the world and is said to be recognized by business men as a strong organization of young advertising experts.

Kircher was chosen as the Ohio representative to the national convention at Champaign, Ill., as the guest of the University of Illinois chapter. Representatives were there from the entire country. They were entertained at dances, banquets and games. He spent one day in Chicago at the guest of Kenneth Gale, Chicago designer and illustrator.

Factory Damaged

Wilmington, Oct. 18.—Damage was estimated at $6,000 today following the fire which broke out yesterday practically destroyed the Carey Brass Foundry here. The blaze, of undetermined origin, was not covered by insurance.

Six glasses of water, three square meals a day at regular intervals, eight hours of sleep and enough clothing to keep warm—that is the answer to good health, according to the public health service.

"Thrills and excitements of fast night life, wild parties, allurements of business activity, the drive for supremacy in school life and many other abnormalities keep the body and mind functioning — temporarily only," said an official of the public health service.

Miss 1928—age from 16 to 60 — is dressing more sanely than did Miss 1865, public health officials agreed. Describing modern feminine attire they criticized nothing but excessively high heels and in some cases bodily and leg exposure. It was the consensus that women dress more sensibly than men.

REPAIRS MAY DELAY
FLIGHT OF BIG SHIP

Dr. Eckener Will Visit
Akron By Plane;
Detroit Listed

Whether the Graf Zeppelin will pass over Salem on its inland tour today was not a certainty, queries concerning the big airship's itinerary resulted in statements that no definite schedule had been adopted. The tentative route made public today stated the zeppelin will pass over Pittsburgh, Youngstown and Akron making it probable if this route is adopted, Salem people will not be given a view of the craft.

It will likely pass over East Palestine on its route from Pittsburgh to Youngstown. Salem is near an air mail route in this section of the state, but not in line with the route which may be taken by the zeppelin.

Repairs Progressing
Officials of the Goodyear Zeppelin company in Akron today gave it as their opinion that repairs on the Graf Zeppelin may delay the big airship's inland tour until Wednesday. No definite information has reached them, they said, as to the day on which the start will be made on the itinerary.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the zeppelin is to be the guest of Goodyear officials, flying to Akron in an airplane after the big ship has been moored at Detroit, according to tentative plans. Hugh Allen, publicity director for the company, and Dr. Eckener's personal agent, who wired the Cleveland chamber of commerce last night that the Graf Zeppelin might be expected Monday, was out of the city today.

Over Youngstown
It was believed most likely that the dirigible would fly over Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Akron, Cleveland and Detroit. There is a chance, however, that it will continue west from Cleveland, touching Chicago before turning back to Detroit.

"It's all a guess now," one Goodyear official said. "The old doctor can be expected to route his own course, but he probably hasn't decided on it yet himself."

Decrease In Auto Licenses Noted By County's Officials

There were only 373 automobile licenses issued in Columbiana county during September, against 487 in August and 629 in July. License fees collected totaled $2,154.49 as against $3,663.15 in August. The state has been credited with $1,028.30 and the county road repair fund with $354.11. Municipal corporations have a credit of $772.08, as follows:

East Liverpool 65 licenses $233.25; Wellsville 45 licenses $123.40; East Palestine 35 licenses $81.30; Salem 51 licenses $149.78; Leetonia 11; Lisbon 14 licenses $55.15; Columbiana 12 licenses $59.37; Salmville 12 licenses $45.53; Rogers 4 licenses $8.00; New Waterford 5 licenses $9.25; Washingtonville 2 licenses $19.25; Hanoverton no credits.

Davey Stands Behind Smith And His National Platform

Democratic State Chairman Makes Statement
Regarding Ohio's Attitude Toward National Policies; Nominee's Statement Challenged

Columbus, Oct. 18.—Announcement that Detective Cal Crim, Cincinnati, posted $1,000 which he is willing to forfeit to anyone who can prove the alleged claim made by Congressman Martin L. Davey, Kent, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, that Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati, Republican candidate for governor, contributed $50,000 to the Hamilton county campaign committee was contained in a statement issued today from Republican state headquarters.

"Davey's position in regard to Governor Al Smith is already known, both from the Democratic state convention speech and public statements he has made," declared Henry G. Brunner, Mansfield, chairman of the Democratic state campaign committee. "All the Democratic state ticket is solidly behind the national ticket of the party." Brunner said, answering the recent statement of Arthur A. Nixon, Dayton, chairman of the Republican state central committee, who urged that Davey announce whether he is for, or against, Smith.

Cooper conferred with G. O. P. leaders today at state headquarters while Davey was speaking at Marysville, Kenton, Bellefontaine and Urbana. Davey is scheduled to talk here tonight.

Realtors Discuss Interest Rates As Affecting Builders

Columbus, Oct. 18.—Warning against the spectre of increased interest rates for home financing, speakers at the fortieth convention of the Ohio Building Association league were on record here today as declaring against increased rates to borrowers despite the current high money rates prevailing in Wall street.

"We must not allow current tightness of the money market to stampede us into raising our loaning rate or to increase our dividend and interest rates to our members and depositors," said Edward Holz of Cincinnati who further stated that usual or even unusual incidents that from time to time are "bound to occur" in the financial world should not materially affect building and loan rates.

Murray D. Lincoln, secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation, was scheduled today to address convention delegates.

SILENCE "WHISPERS"
WHICH WERE AFLOAT

Attack Taken To Heart
By Former Secretary;
Values Citizenship

Washington, Oct. 18.—The long whispering attack on the American citizenship of Herbert Hoover, started during the Republican pre-convention campaign and continued by Democratic sources since his nomination, was silenced effectively today following a formal announcement by the state department that "there never has been the slightest question of Mr. Hoover's American citizenship."

The fact that Hoover spent many years abroad in the employment of British engineering firms was the basis of campaign whispers that Hoover had lost his American citizenship. Only once previously during the campaign had this story been brought into the light of political debate and that occurred during Hoover's visit to Elizabethton, Tenn., on that occasion, former Governor Alf Taylor, of Tennessee, declared Hoover had been offered a British title to become a British citizen and that his reply was "he preferred to be beheaded and his body cremated rather than to lose his American citizenship."

Libel Silenced
The state department, in silencing this campaign libel, declared it twice had investigated Hoover's citizenship, once in 1920 and more recently in response to a newspaper inquiry. The department reported that Hoover had registered in 1908 at the American consulate in London as an American citizen, in response to an order by the late President Roosevelt that all American citizens living abroad should be registered by the consular offices.

The department also announced Hoover had applied for American passports to Russia as early as 1909 at a time when only Russia and Turkey required passports. In 1911 and again in 1913, Hoover obtained similar passports. The same thing (Continued on Page 4)

CHURCH HEARS LABOR'S VIEWS

Capital Also Represented
At Episcopalian
Convention

Washington, Oct. 18.—Considerable interest was apparent today in the Episcopal church's stand on the relation of church to industry, following a mass meeting at which the sides of both capital and labor were presented to the delegates to the Triennial convention.

Labor's side of the question was presented to the mass meeting by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, who called upon the church to help solve the "complicated industrial problems" which have arisen since the World War.

In explaining the aims of his organization, Green said: "The ultimate object of the American Federation of Labor can be expressed in two words, 'human betterment.'"

"A social condition in which poverty in the one hand and great wealth on the other prevails is not conducive to spiritual growth or to spiritual prosperity," he said. "The seeds of gospel truth cannot take root or grow in the soil of human poverty. Nor does religion appeal to those who possess great wealth and spend their lives in riotous living."

Harper Sibley, of Rochester, director of banks, mines and lumber companies, in presenting the other side of the question cited "greed" and "selfishness" in business and asked the church to help combat them.

Salem Attorney To Speak At Meeting

The County Republican Central committee has announced a Hoover-Curtis meeting to be held in Heffner's hall at Homeworth Saturday evening, Oct. 27. The meeting will be addressed by Attorney H. L. McCarthy of Salem, and another speaker whose name is to be announced later. The county committee is arranging for several other meetings, dates for which are to be announced within a few days. The last meeting of the campaign will probably be held at Lisbon the evening of Oct. 31.

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY

Scarcely a day passes that the newspapers of the land do not carry corroboration of the old saying that "honesty is the best policy."

A few days ago the head of the travel bureau of one of New York City's leading hotels was found guilty of trying to smuggle into this country twenty-three bottles of liquor and merchandise valued at $1,005.70. He and his wife, returning from Europe, had jointly declared dutiable articles to the value of $225 and paid the duty on the $25 in excess of their exemptions of $100 each, and also the duty on $572 worth of merchandise purchased abroad by them for friends. As he had a customs pass, as a result of his position, which admitted him to all piers, he might have succeeded in getting the goods through undetected, as he would naturally be one of the last to be suspected of attempting to work a fraud on the government. It so happened, however, that an inspector noticed the man's baggage piled on a truck and ready to be taken from the pier, none of which bore customs seals, and among something like a dozen pieces were several boxes that showed no evidences of having been opened. Unable to find any inspector in charge of this particular lot of luggage, the inspector ordered it removed and searched.

The immediate result was that the travel bureau head was fined $115 and had to pay duties and penalties on the undeclared merchandise amounting to $2,011.40, making $2,126.40 in all. More than that, he was rebuffed for the betrayal of trust which went with his pass to board ships and enter customs enclosures, and his pass was enclosed revoked.

But these penalties are trifling in comparison with what he will have to suffer. Henceforth he will be a marked man among customs officials. Even should he be able to retain his place, the revoking of his pass hurts his effectiveness. Instead of being free to come and go on ships and piers as other travel bureau people are, he will be constantly watched and followed. That he will long be able to follow travel bureau work is to be doubted, for even should he change his location, the story of his attempt at smuggling will follow him.

Dishonesty didn't pay this man. It never pays. It may seemingly pay for a time, but in the long run it is bound to prove expensive. Even had this hotel man succeeded in getting his baggage through without the discovery of the undeclared articles, he would have been the loser, for his betrayal of the trust of the customs officials would have made him a changed man. He simply couldn't have retained his self-respect and worked among them as in the past.

"WIRE-TAPPING" IN COURT

The refusal of the supreme court to review its five-to-four decision that evidence obtained by wire tapping is admissible in a federal court was to be expected. The majority of the court was not likely to reverse itself between June and October, when its interpretation of the constitutional point raised in the case was quite as defensible as the interpretation placed on it by the dissenting justices. Counsel for the appellants sought to extend the freedom from "unreasonable searches and seizures" guaranteed by the fourth amendment to the persons, effects and houses of the citizenry to telephone wires. Their contention, which assumed the probability that if telephones had been in common use in 1791, wiretapping would have been included in the amendment, was supported by four of the supreme court justices. This contention disregarded the fact that a telephone wire is in a sense a common carrier and not the personal property of those who purchase the service it provides.

The majority opinion of the court held that it had no power to bar from courts of the United States evidence that had been constitutionally, although unethically, obtained; but it suggested that his power might be given it by congressional legislation declaring such evidence to be inadmissible. Acting on this suggestion, Congressman McLeod of this district has drafted an outlawing evidence obtained by wiretapping or listening in on private telephone conversations, and will introduce it at the next session of congress. The enactment of this bill would make it possible for federal courts to exclude a class of evidence unethically obtained, and would free the government of the suspicion of being party to what Justice Holmes characterized as "a dirty business."—Detroit Free Press.

SATISFY HUNGER, BUT DON'T OVERDUE IT

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D., United States Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City

Do you overeat? After taking all the food your body requires, do you add another course or two? I read the other day: "Every morsel to a satisfied hunger is only a new labor to a tired digestion."

The instincts of a healthy body are to be trusted. Of course, if you have perverted and distorted your appetites by abuse of your organs, you cannot trust your desires.

If the wires of the telephone lines are crossed and tangled by a tempest, the ringing of your phone is meaningless. It is not a call for you, but merely the senseless noise of a disordered system.

If you habitually eat food you do not require, or take foods that are harmful to your system, your stomach cannot be trusted to tell you truthfully whether you need more food or not. You just don't know whether you have had enough or really require more. On the contrary, if you are sensible about your eating, and practice common sense every day, you may trust your appetite. Your feelings will accurately record your necessities.

Then you will know by the satisfaction of your hunger that the meal should be ended. Under these circumstances, to add a single morsel is only to give unnecessary labor to the digestive system. As the epigram states, it will give "only a new labor to a tired digestion."

The digestive powers are set to the actual requirements of the body. We must have so much protein, so much fat and carbohydrates. All we take in excess of our real needs, must be worked over by the machinery of the body and be disposed of by organs which require all their energies for their normal work. We wear out the machinery by giving it unnecessary work to do. We tire it by overwork.

The other day I was in Syracuse and went to lunch with three business men of that city. They are successful executives and splendid characters. All of them are strong, vigorous, handsome, healthy men. I cannot refrain from observing what people eat. My interest in health and nutrition makes me wonder how well these teachings of ours are affecting the public.

Of course, I noticed what my friends ordered. One took graham crackers and a glass of milk. One took fruit and a slice of cheese. The third took "half and half," a bowl of half cream and half milk. Into this he broke whole wheat bread and pieces of American cheese. This is an unusual combination, but an excellent one.

The milk and cheese supply the essential protein. The bread and cheese give the carbohydrates. The cheese and cream furnish the fat and vitamins. The milk supplies the minerals.

At another meal he will get the fruit and vegetables to give his body the other elements. But for noontime, the orders of all these men struck me as a sensible meal on the part of each of these office men.

A light meal in the middle of the day and a meal so well balanced, is exactly the sort of meal the business man should have. It supplies the demands of appetite and does not tire digestion. Neither is it so heavy as to clog the system and send the brain to sleep.

The Stars Say—

For Friday, Oct. 19.

By GENEVIEVE KEMPLE

ALTHOUGH the general trend of events on this day is under a benefic rule of the stars, yet there is some menace from sudden decisions or whirlwind operations. New undertakings are well fortified, but ill-considered change, removal or travel may involve difficulties. Employment is under favorable auspices and personal matters are happily aspected. Favors may be expected from females.

Those whose birthday it is may expect benefits or recognition from employers and in new undertakings, but they should be cautious in the matter of sudden or ill-considered change, journeys or removal. Abrupt moves are undesirable.

A child born on this day may have some singular gifts, as well as fine social qualities, equipping it for success in employment, in diplomacy or in secret orders. It may have a leaning toward the occult or metaphysical.

The keen spirit seizes the prompt occasion—makes the thought start into instant action and at once plans and performs, resolves and executes.—Hannah More.

Evidence In Philadelphia Is Affected by Crime's Threat

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—A menacing forefinger across the throat—the underworld death sign to the "squealer"—hovered over the Philadelphia rum investigation today. These dangers by the revelations of police corruption have sent forth the word that too much is being spilled across the bar of justice, authorities declare. Francis J. McKeown, former owner of a Germantown saloon and counted on as one of the state's star witnesses, was under $5,000 bail today charged with "wilful and deliberate perjury." Why? McKeown took the witness stand at the trial of Materson, ward politician and former Police Captain Charles W. Schoenleber.

The defendants are accused of conspiracy in alleged collecting from saloonkeepers for police protection. A scowling spectator trailed his forefinger at right angles across his throat. Perhaps he was arranging his necktie. McKeown stared then he started Assistant District Atty. Lemuel B. Schofield by repulating testimony supplied a few weeks ago under examination. Judge Edwin O. Lewis held McKeown on a charge of perjury. When Al Hendrie, "lager baron," testified at a hearing to paying $3,600 a month's right-of-way protection for his beer truck fleet, four men in the court room snapped their fingers across their throats. Perhaps they were rubbing their chins. "Things are just beginning to pop open," said the district attorney's office as three more police captains were suspended. "And more than bottles will pop if this spilling keeps on." ominously predicted one who claims to know the inside of the rum king here.

Ohio Liquor Agent Freed by Jury In Shooting of Runner

Steubenville, Oct. 18.—Joseph P. Tice, state dry enforcement aide, was free here today following his acquittal by a jury in common pleas court where Tice had been on trial charged with shooting with intent to kill in the death of Tony Soldani, 18, alleged rum runner who, Tice claimed, refused to halt when caught in the act of delivering a gallon of whiskey. A crumpled personality was injected into the proceedings when Jefferson County Prosecutor Roy N. Mervin played John L. Seidel, Columbus attorney and assistant fense counsel, for "coming here from Columbus to ridicule us and attempt to remedy conditions." Mervin's statement came during the closing arguments before the case was submitted to the jury and followed a charge by Seidel that "morals of the youth of Jefferson county are being undermined by the liquor traffic in Steubenville and Jefferson county."

The jury deliberated slightly more than an hour before reaching a verdict.

AMAZING RESULTS OBTAINED BY USE OF NEW KONJOLA

Dayton Resident Tells How This
Master Medicine Ended 30 Years
Of Stomach Trouble

MR. GEORGE HOLZAPFEL

The remarkable case of Mr. George Holzapfel, 36 Liberty Street, Dayton, Ohio, is a striking proof of the potency of this Konjola medicine. Happy in health regained, Mr. Holzapfel says:

"Do you wonder that I am recommending the wonderful Konjola to all my acquaintances, when it restored my health after 30 years of stomach trouble? During that time, I spent at least $500 seeking relief that I never found until I heard of and tried Konjola. I tried no end of treatments, went to hospitals, was X-rayed a number of times. Nothing helped. But Konjola banished all my troubles. Gone is the indigestion of 30 years; gone are the gas, bloating, vomiting and pains. My nerves are calmed, and I am gaining strength and weight rapidly. For the first time in 30 years, I can enjoy what I eat, and have a full night's rest. Wonderful, indeed, is the medicine that can perform a seeming miracle like this, and Konjola is the remedy that rescued me from more than a quarter-century of anguish and ill health."

Konjola is sold in Salem at all J. H. Lease drug stores, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Courtesy Required Of German Police

Berlin, Oct. 18.—Police President Zoergel, of Berlin, has issued a new decree ordering all policemen and police officials to be polite to the population.

Berlin already prides itself that it has the politest police in the world.

Zoergel's personal tests revealed, however, that certain police officials answering telephone calls did not reply with the proper degree of polite interest and the new decree is to eliminate this last beauty spot.

HOOVER

occurred in 1915, 1916 and 1918, the department added.

"In all applications," the department continued, "for passports, as well as in the original registration at the consulate, Mr. Hoover established the United States as his permanent residence."

Did Not Vote
Dr. Hubert Work, Republican national chairman, subsequently issued a statement, denying rumors that Hoover once had voted in a British election. Work announced that on several occasions from 1909 to 1914, Hoover's name had appeared on a British "register of persons entitled to vote" in a precinct in which he had rented a house. Under the British law, Work explained, all persons renting houses, paid taxes on their houses and had their names listed on the voting list, "subject to test if attempt was made to vote."

"Mr. Hoover never voted," Work added, "he never attempted to vote. He would have been subject to drastic penalties if he had voted."

Work declared Hoover had not learned his name was on this roll until a short time ago and then to his surprise.

"Mr. Hoover became aware of this fact only by being informed of search being made of local records by representatives of American detective agencies and opposition newspapers endeavoring to find something which they could launch in this campaign," Work continued.

It is no secret at Republican headquarters that Hoover has taken this attack on his citizenship closer to heart than any criticism of his public career. He is an American to the heart, values his citizenship above any other honor in the world and has protected it at all times.

LOST FLIER

the course from Newfoundland to the western coast of Ireland first used by Aleck and Brown in 1919. Known as Daring

He is well known here for his daring. He received the distinguished service cross before retiring from the navy in 1926. His experience in navigating gained in the navy is expected to aid him on his trans-Atlantic venture. Last May MacDonald attempted to fly from here to India but was forced down at Bagdad. On the way back he was forced down in a desert and held prisoner by an Arab tribe until rescued by an Italian armored car.

All vessels in the northern shipping lanes have been notified of MacDonald's flight but no reports of his having been sighted have been received here.

Many here view MacDonald's flight in such a small plane a foolhardy adventure but an equal number believe he has a good chance of succeeding in view of the favorable weather reports from both sides of the ocean.

MacDonald's plane carries no radio and will not be heard from until he does, unless he is sighted by a ship makes a successful landing. A forced landing on the ocean is something upon which MacDonald is gambling not to happen. His plane is not equipped with floats.

The last successful trans-Atlantic flight to Europe was made from Trepassy to Wales by Miss Amelia Earhart in the tri-motored monoplane Friendship with Wilmer Stultz at the controls.

At 10 o'clock this morning there was news of MacDonald from any source.

FLYING BARON'S PLANE CRASHES

Ship Expected To Cross
Pacific Is Wrecked
In Storm

Berlin, Oct. 18.—The plane in which Baron Von Huenefeld, of the Bremen's crew, and Pilot Lindner are attempting a flight from Berlin to San Francisco, crashed in a thunder storm in a suburb of Tokio at 2:30 o'clock this morning (Japanese Time), and was badly damaged, according to word received here from Tokio. The fliers who had hopped off at Shanghai at 10 o'clock last night (Chinese Time) were unhurt.

Tokio, Oct. 18.—Baron Von Huenefeld, daring German aviator, was expected to reach here today after making a non-stop flight from Shanghai. His plane passed over Osaka at daybreak but he had yet to encounter the dangers of the Hakone Mountain range before reaching here. The weather was clear when the German flier skimmed by Osaka but it was rainy and foggy in Tokio.

The fliers, after their plane has been overhauled, will attempt to span the Pacific.

One day I watched a plumber fix a leaky bathtub slick and clean.

"There's nothing to these plumbers' tricks," The thought exploded in my head.

"I'll do my own work like that. And with the savings buy a hat."

Eventually it fell my lot To own a tub that leaked like sin.

The more I toiled the worse it got. Until at last my soul gave in.

I called a plumber in my shame. He quickly fixed it up again.

'Tis always thus when humans try. To do the things they don't know how—

To fly a plane around the sky, when all they've ridden is a cow.

"Stick to your last," is always best. And let a tailor make your vest."—Selected.

Dr. Hugo Eckener Expects to Start Regular Ocean Service

Fourteen Million Dollar Corporation Planned For Conducting Aerial Transatlantic Travel
By Dirigible Balloon Method

New York, Oct. 18.—Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Graf Zeppelin, hopes to establish an all-year trans-Atlantic dirigible line for the transportation of passengers, mail and freight by four Zeppelins. He believes that the Graf Zeppelin's successful 6,000 mile flight has proved the feasibility of such a project.

At the same time a decision was to be made regarding the proposed tour of the country by the Graf Zeppelin, first commercial air liner to cross the Atlantic. Repairs to the Graf Zeppelin's damaged fin are expected to be completed by Sunday.

Following a dinner given in his honor here last night by the board of trade for German-America commerce, Dr. Eckener made known his dream of establishing a regular trans-Atlantic aerial service.

"I hope to establish a $14,000,000 corporation to build and operate dirigibles like the Graf Zeppelin for an all year, 54-hour service between Germany and the United States," he said.

"When I brought the Los Angeles to the United States four years ago I discussed the project for such a service with a very prominent American financier. At that time he was not fully convinced of the practicability of my plan, but (this time) I hope to convince him."

Tentative plans for the Graf Zeppelin's proposed American tour were revealed by Captain E. A. Lehmann, pilot of the dirigible, starting next Tuesday, the dirigible would visit Akron, Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago, with 12 or 15 passengers aboard.

After returning to Lakehurst on Friday, the ship will take on gas and start the return voyage to Germany.

LEADERS SHOW GREAT ADVANCE IN SPECULATION

Montgomery Ward Jumps Fifteen Points In Few Minutes

GENERAL TREND OF PRICES IS UPWARD

Motor Stocks and Special Issues Show Steady Gaining

New York, Oct. 18.—The crashing advance in the high-priced, speculative leaders was resumed at the beginning of trading today. Montgomery Ward moved up 15 points in as many minutes to a new high price of 322½, completing a gain of 68 points since Monday morning. International Nickel's new rise brought the stock up 10 points to 17½ to the accompaniment of persistent rumors of important merger and recapitalization developments in the company. Johnsonville and Victor Talking moved upward a few points more.

Though the market was called upon to absorb further profit-taking in some departments, the general trend of prices was strongly upward. Aggressive buying of the Oils and Coppers was resumed in this period, many of the speculative leaders in both groups reaching the best price levels of the week. Motor stocks and specialties sold higher. Briggs and Murray continuing their spectacular upward movements. Atlantic Refining led the oils, with a 4-point jump to 191.

Business and industrial reports were generally unchanged, and the money market was slightly easier with time rates at 6-34 per cent. And call loan renewals at 7 per cent, the better grade of railroad stocks showed the effect of new buying most of yesterday's active rails selling at a slightly higher level of prices. The same was true of the utilities and the equipments, in which trading was on a fairly large scale.

Cotton was irregular at the opening, recovering about 15 points in the first hour on bad weather reports. Grain prices were practically unchanged and local commodity markets were steady, with narrow price changes. Stocks were irregular in the second hour, with increasing liquidation and profit-taking in the industrials and specialties.

Food Prices Gain In September Is Official Report

Washington, Oct. 18.—The retail price of food jumped 2-1/2 per cent in September, over August prices, while wholesale prices of various commodities increased about 1-1/2 per cent, the department of labor announced today.

The retail price of food has increased 54 per cent since Sept. 15, 1913, while wholesale prices have increased nearly 34 per cent since September a year ago.

Since August 27 food articles have increased in price, eggs topping the list at 12 per cent. Other major increases include pork chops, 11 per cent; chickens, 7 per cent; plate beef 5 per cent; butter 4 per cent; chuck roast, lard and bananas, 3 per cent, while sirloin steak, round steak, ham and cabbage increased 2 per cent. An increase of 1 per cent was noted for evaporated milk, cheese, rolled oats, rice, navy beans and canned peas.

Food articles declining in price included raisins, 4 per cent; canned salmon 3 per cent; flour 2 per cent, bread and sugar 1 per cent.

Among the commodities increasing in wholesale prices grain, stock and poultry showed a still larger increase. The group as a whole averaged over 1-1/2 per cent higher than in the preceding month. Foods also increased in average prices due to the continued upward movement of butter, eggs, fresh and cured meats and potatoes. Flour and sugar prices were slightly above those of August.

Briton Is Forced To Re-Marry Wife

London, Oct. 18.—The remarkable position of being forced to marry his own wife has been thrust upon Edward Lockspeiser, a young British musical composer, by the American passport regulations.

Lockspeiser and his wife wish to visit the United States. They were married in May last at the British Consul-General's office in Paris, but since the American passport regulations to not recognize marriages performed at a British Consul's office in a country other than British, they have been forced to give notice of their impending "marriage" at a London register office.

Wreckage of Airplane Found by Ship

London, Oct. 18.—An aluminum gasoline tank believed to have belonged to the seaplane "Latham" which disappeared with Capt. Roald Amundsen and four others after they set out from Tromsø, Norway, to search for missing members of the ill-fated dirigible Italia, has been found by a sailing vessel north of Trondhjem according to a Central News report received from Oslo, Norway today.

When picked up, the tank was in a badly battered condition. Apparently, it had been violently detached from the fuselage of the missing plane.

Napoleonic Lace Is Bought In St. Louis

London, Oct. 18.—The finest lace in existence, so precious that its value cannot be assessed, has been sold by a London firm of fine art dealers to a St. Louis collector.

The lace is the complete set of bed hangings which Napoleon gave to the Archduchess Maria Louise on the occasion of their marriage. The groundwork is powdered with the Imperial "Bee," and the Napoleonic crown forms the corners. The border carries sprays of the lilies of France.

SMITH

correctness of their reports, and asserted that November would prove it. At any rate they are extremely confident and sanguine, and the Republicans are privately a little worried. Some of the G. O. P. leaders are insisting that Herbert Hoover make a speech here enroute to California about Nov. 1.

Receives Ovation

Governor Smith received a tremendous ovation upon his arrival here late last night. Ten thousand people massed about union station to welcome him, and the police had literally to fight their way out of the station with the governor in their midst. Without any attempt at parading, the Democratic nominee was whisked to the Congress hotel.

Through streets lined with people and red flares several thousand people gathered outside the hotel in Michigan blvd., and gave to their enthusiasm by making a public bonfire in the street of copies of a local Republican morning paper, which printed a cartoon quoting a Republican elephant as saying it was a good thing for the G. O. P. that all the people who came out to see Smith couldn't vote for him.

As the flames gleamed merrily, they danced about. And as they danced they yelled for "Al." The yells finally became so insistent that the governor took a bow on the hotel balcony far above their heads, and when he appeared the noise was terrific.

Tomorrow night Governor Smith will deliver his last address of the campaign west of the Alleghenies. Saturday morning he returns to Albany for a few days rest before embarking upon a whirlwind 10-day campaign along the Atlantic seaboard.

Today was to be a quiet day for the Democratic nominee. He planned only to work on the speech which he will deliver tomorrow night and to confer with local men. Gov. Smith was not ready this morning to announce upon what subject he will speak in Chicago.

GERMAN WINTER RAIL SCHEDULES CHANGE CLASSES

Berlin, Oct. 18.—With the winter time table and the new rates on the German railroads effective Oct. 7, Germany loses its former almost unique distinction of possessing in addition to the usual first, second and third class, a fourth class.

Moreover, the first class is retained only in a few luxurious fast trains on important routes, above all such as serve the international traveling public, and in the sleepers.

Two Class System With this exception, the two-class usual in European countries is introduced. This will be made up of the "upholstered" coaches and the so-called "wooden" class, in which the seats are not upholstered. The present second class remains as it was; the third and fourth classes will amalgamate.

The rate in the first class will be increased from 10 pfennings per kilometer to 11.2. In the second class a decrease comes from the present 7.5 pfennings to 5.6. The old rate for the third class is 5, for the fourth class 3.3 pfennings. The rate in this amalgamated "wooden" class will be in the future 3.7 pfennings.

These rates are for accommodation trains. For fast through trains ("Schnellzüge") a supplemental charge is made of from 2 marks for the first zone (up to 75 kilometers) to 10 marks for the fifth zone (over 300 kilometers) in the first and second classes, corresponding supplements of from 1 to 5 marks in the third class.

For the so-called "FD" trains, which make still fewer stops than the "Schnellzüge," a further charge of 4 marks for each class is made. A special extra charge of 8 marks for each class (first or second) is made for the luxurious "Reichs-Ekspresse."

Far from signifying a general increase in the cost of railroad travel in Germany, however, the new rates will result in markedly cheaper travel for passengers accustomed to use the second or third class.

A comparison with passenger rates in other countries shows that Congressman Frank Murphy was the speaker at the meeting of the local meeting of the local Kwanan club Tuesday evening held in the Methodist parish house. Congressman Murphy whose home town is Steubenville, gave a most interesting address along the line of his work and could not be called a political speech. The speaker of the evening was to have been the Rev. J. D. McBride, pastor of the Presbyterian church, but owing to the presence of Congressman Murphy in the village he was asked to take the place of Rev. McBride. Several violin solos by Fred De Bue of Salem with piano accompaniment by James Kunkel were very much enjoyed.

The attendance prize donated by Charles Heim was captured by S. V. Brinker.

Mrs. John Gould entertained club associates of the "500" Club at her home on Monday evening. A very delightful time was spent in cards, two tables being entertained. The dainty trophy for highest score was captured by Mrs. P. B. Lavelle, while Mrs. Elizabeth Wyland, of Lisbon, carried home the consolation gift. At a late hour the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Minnie Martin and Mrs. Frances De Zella of Cleveland, who are visiting with the former's aunt, Mrs. Herbert Smedley, of Washington, spent Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Smedley, calling on friends and relatives in Leetonia.

Mrs. R. F. Altomare was in Salem on Tuesday where she called at the City hospital to see Alfred Cline, who recently submitted to an operation for appendicitis. He is getting along well.

Mrs. Mary White, who was seriously ill at the Central Clinic hospital in Salem, is improving. Should she continue to improve it is expected she will be brought to her home here the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kornbau received word of the birth of a son to their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kornbau at Washington, on Sunday, Oct. 14.

Joseph Kornbau of Washington, was an over the week end guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kornbau.

Mrs. Raymond Leonard is ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Gertner, on Ridge st. The little daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard on Monday died at birth.

Mrs. Frank Stiller was a Columbiana visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. P. B. Lavelle entertained at cards on Monday afternoon, there being five tables. Following the afternoon's enjoyment Mrs. Lavelle served dainty refreshments.

Airplane Is Used to Capture Auto Thief

Norwalk, O., Oct. 18.—Edward King, 26, today was under an indictment charging burglary, possession of stolen goods and auto larceny, and with his indictment it became known that to King goes the doubtful distinction of being the first man in the history of the county arrested after being pursued by an airplane.

Cecil Watts, whose automobile King was alleged to have stolen, and R. C. Blake, manager of the Willard airport, when they learned that King was in Fremont, flew there in an airplane and had him arrested.

PRaise BRITISH MANUFACTURERS FOR EFFICIENCY

Glasgow, Oct. 18.—Praise for the efficiency of British industry has come from Prof. Allyn A. Young, of Harvard university, who, in addressing the British association, stated that British industry is as ably conducted as that of America or any other country.

"The secret of this success," he said, "is that Great Britain can command an organizing ability second to none in the world."

"Those who hold that American industry is managed better, that its leaders study its problems more intelligently and plan more courageously and more wisely, can cite no facts in support of their opinion save the differences in the results achieved."

Allowing for the circumstance that British industry, as a whole, has proved to be rather badly adjusted to the new post-war economic situation. I know of no facts which prove, or even indicate that British industry, seen against the background of its own problems and its own possibilities, is less efficiently organized or less ably directed than American industry or the industry of any other country."

"The best known British industrialists are Lord Melchett—better known as Sir Alfred Mond—who controls Imperial Chemicals, a concern which dominates all kinds of chemical activity in Britain; Lord Inchcape, the shipping magnate; Sir Hugo Hirst, chairman of the General Electric Company; Lord Londonderry, controlling the greatest coalfields in Britain; W. R. Morris, the 'Henry Ford of Britain'; and Sir Eric Geddes, who has controlled both American and British railroads, placed Imperial Airways on a sound commercial basis, and is now re-organizing the great Dunlop tire concern."

A new "breathing cult," said to have been started in Los Angeles is gaining some favor in London.

The sect is known as the Mazdaznan, and their leader in this country is Lieut-Col. Arthur E. Gault.

"The supreme head of the Mazdaznans on earth is Dr. Otomas Zar Adushat Hainish, who directs our activities from Los Angeles," Col. Gault said. "He has no nationality. He is a descendant of Solomon. He knows everything, and has powers which are divine. We call him 'the Master.'"

One of the features of the Mazdaznan service is the singing of a hymn called "Every Breath inhaled."

Breathing, Col. Gault said, plays an important part in the services of the cult, which aims toward "culture of the mind." Adherents of the sect believe that they will live until 1990.

Courtesy Stressed

London, Oct. 18.—"Police should remember that good manners go a long way" is the advice given to the English police force by Sir Leonard Dunning, Inspector of Constabulary.

"Remember that, whether a person is right or wrong, he is entitled to be treated civilly," adds Dunning.

"Drivers sometimes do stupid and reckless things, or err from ignorance and want of thought. They are far more likely to comply with your directions if you give them good-humoredly and civilly."

Vision Ford As Zep Company Backer

New York, Oct. 18.—Henry Ford may be the "big man" behind the trans-Atlantic passenger and mail dirigible corporation which Dr. Hugo Eckener, commodore of the Graf Zeppelin, is seeking to form in this country, according to a rumor current today.

No one connected with the Eckener or with the Goodyear-Zeppelin company, his American representatives, would confirm the report.

Ford plans have been placed at Dr. Eckener's disposal for his business trip to Chicago next week.

The corporation would be capitalized for at least $14,000,000 to provide for construction of four super-dirigibles and a hangar on each side of the ocean.

Salem High Should Continue Winning Streak Saturday

Wellsville Does Not Seem To Pack Threat Past Opponents Toted

It will be a badly battered and bruised Salem High grid aggregation that takes the field for the Red and Black's third county fracas at Wellsville Saturday afternoon. Almost every man who participated in the Warren game last week emerged with bruises and minor injuries that are slowing up practice work. None, however, are suffering from any serious mishaps that might keep them from action against the up-county eleven.

Wellsville shouldn't be so tough for Floyd Stone's winning combination, but then again, there will be nothing so extra easy in the game for the Salem team. Wellsville hasn't beaten a Salem High team since 1922, but the game between the two schools was always a stiff struggle.

Last Saturday Wellsville surprised dopesters by taking over Chester, W. Va., 14-0, a team that has bowled over Wellsville outfits for years, giving indications that the team, with few veterans in the lineup, is developing fast and may give the Red and Black more competition than is foreseen. The previous week-end, Eton, Pa., swamped Coach Keightley's charges 24-7.

Thus it is indicated that there has been a big change in Wellsville's playing. That this strength may be up to the standard of Salem High's team can not be stated, though, as neither team has stacked up against the same opposition, and whatever match the one outfit is for the other is merely a matter of conjecture.

Pace Well
Wellsville licked Chester via the same style of play that Stone's clan is noted for—passing. On line plunges and off-tackle plays, Chester held Wellsville even, but air work netted Keightley's team scored both touchdowns.

Pacey, Wellsville quarter, is adept at hurling the hoghide, heaving the ball to Couts, left end, for all passes which were completed for scores. Snowden, the only veteran backfield man, does the ground-gaining on off-tackle plays, and forms a good backfield combine with Pacey, and Williams and Checker, the halfbacks. Snowden last year was mentioned by several county writers for all-county end honors, and this year was shifted to ball-carrying responsibilities.

Workouts Light
Stone is taking into consideration the hard game Salem had last week and taking the boys through lighter workouts than usual. He is not under-estimating Wellsville's strength in the least, and grooming his men for another hard game. The fact that Wellsville plays extra hard when stacked up against Salem teams means another grueling struggle, and the rest which the team will be given the following Saturday, when no game is scheduled, will be well-earned.

Understudies of the regular squad will be given their first regular game of the season, Saturday morning, at 9:30, when Washingtonville first team plays at Reilly stadium. Coach Ruffner has not picked out any regular lineup for his team, which will include all of the players who will not make the Wellsville trip in the afternoon.

1928 Football Schedule Reaches Climaxes Earlier Than Usual

With Eastern Grid Teams

Providence, R. I., Oct. 18.—The Brown football squad today will complete its preparation for the Yale game, with the aerial attack being stressed. The squad is in poor physical condition and several regulars may not be able to start due to injuries.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 18.—The "Hold 'em Yale" yell may be heard quite frequently at the Yale-Brown game here Saturday, judging from the Eli varsity's failure to stop the freshmen in yesterday's practice. Given the ball six times on the varsity's ten-yard line, the frosh scored three touchdowns and made a field goal.

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The Army football squad of 38 players will leave here this afternoon for the Harvard game. They will work out in the Harvard stadium tomorrow afternoon.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 18.—Harvard is expected to rely chiefly on the forward pass against Army. Harvard ineligible, coached by a scout who has been studying the army offensive plays, were stopped by the Crimson varsity yesterday after gaining considerable ground at the start.

Hanover, N. H., Oct. 18.—Improving the defensive play of the Dartmouth line is the chief work of the coaches in preparing for the Columbia game. A hard workout was scheduled for today, yesterday's practice having been curtailed due to the heat.

New York, Oct. 18.—Stanzyk, Scott and Sheridan, Columbia's "Three S" sophomore backs, started as the varsity scored three touchdowns against the freshmen yesterday. The team will leave for Hanover tonight following a short scrimmage.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 18.—Three successive defeats have not shaken Coach Ingram's faith in the Navy varsity. The regular line-up will start against Duke on Saturday.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 18.—Combining theory and practice, Coach Roper will give his Tiger players a workout of only one hour and an hour's discussion as its daily football fare in the future. The Princeton Reserves beat Rutgers yesterday 7 to 0 in a practice game.

Fremont—Opening of cave believed to be 2,500 feet long has been discovered on a farm here. A huge stone which apparently had been placed at the entrance of the subterranean passage many years ago, was removed by three boys.

The "Big Train" Now a Manager

Every Washington fan will "pull" mightily for Walter Johnson, the "Big Train," now that he has signed to manage the Senators. The picture above shows him signing a three-year contract with Clark Griffith, Washington owner, looking on.

Wooster Prepares For "Hard Winter"

Wooster, O., Oct. 18.—Coming thru with a scoreless tie in last Saturday's game with their old rivals Oberlin, Wooster college grid-ders are now pointing toward what Coach L. C. Boles has termed "a hard winter."

On successive Saturdays Wooster will meet Mt. Union at Alliance and Western Reserve and Ohio Wesleyan here. Any one of the three could be termed the "tough game" of an average schedule, but meeting all three in a row will be a hard problem for Boles and his grid-men to solve.

Mt. Union showed exceptional strength in spilling Case last Saturday while the large scores both Reserve and Ohio Wesleyan have been piling up are enough to cause almost any opponent to shudder. Boles gave his men a rest Monday and Tuesday began to polish up old plays and to develop a new offensive that may prove valuable during "the hard winter."

Donie Bush Wants To Manage Tigers

Detroit, Oct. 18.—Donnie Bush, one time Detroit shortstop and now manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is negotiating with Frank Navin of the Tigers for the job of running the local American league club next season, according to a report published here today. Bush was here a few days ago for years.

Major Teams Combat In Early Season Tilts On Fields Over Nation

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Oct. 18.—Quietude, Webster wrote, is the state or quality of being quiet; repose; tranquility; rest. Then he went to the telephone and gave his story to a modern re-write man and, when it finally saw the light of day, he was surprised to learn that quietude is the thing one won't get on Saturday anywhere in the vicinity of a pair of goal posts. This, it might be mentioned, means approximately everywhere, thus narrowing the situation down considerably.

Anyhow, football comes up for a big league trial this week for the first time this season. The transition for minor to major engagements on Saturday is more abrupt than at any time in the writer's memory. In only one line of inquiry is it possible that one can't go wrong and that is in naming the so-called little games. There isn't any.

The haste with which the 1928 season is getting to a climax is best realized by the fact that California and Southern California are meeting at Berkeley. To the Golden Bear, Stanford alone is a more significant opponent than U. S. C. to the latter, significance begins with the Golden Bears and ends when and if it beats them. This is quite an issue to be contesting as early as the third Saturday in October but the game, far from being unique in this respect, is just a prominent example. The day has more issues than the Liberty Loan.

Perhaps as interesting as any will be the meeting between Georgia Tech and Notre Dame at Atlanta, since it will give us a line on southern football in relation to the rest of the country, the latter being very prominent on Notre Dame's schedule.

Harvard-Army

The Harvard-Army game at Cambridge is another focal point because the latter always is good and Harvard seems to be getting that way, after a slight delay of maybe ten years. The Army's performance is interesting because it is playing one of those "rest of the country" schedules, too.

The new Big Six conference in and adjacent to the Missouri valley will stand plenty of watching this week end. Probably as strong as any set of teams in the country, it will have a chance to prove something genuine when Nebraska and Syracuse, highly qualified sectional representatives, have at it at Lincoln. Missouri will get a real test of the speed they say it has in its meeting with Iowa State and, if the Tigers really intend to dominate the situation out that way, they will do well to start dominating with this one or turn their attention to something less precarious.

Ohio State Noticed
Speaking of tests, perhaps Alabama, apparently headed back to-anybody and so we must look with pointed inquiry at Ohio State until the final returns are in.

The Buckeyes are playing Michigan and ordinarily this would be a game of games out that way. As it is, it merely means that Ohio State must win it or lose caste accordingly.

That approximately is the case with Minnesota against Chicago; Pennsylvania against Penn State and Wisconsin against Purdue. The opponent in each has been defeated, which means that even a tie score will lose the ball game, in effect, for Minnesota, Pennsylvania or Wisconsin.

Many Games
Natural, geographical and conference rivals will meet in the following games: Bucknell vs Lafayette; Carnegie Tech vs W. and J.; Dartmouth vs Columbia; Yale vs Brown; Alabama Poly vs Mississippi; Centenary vs Baylor; Drake vs Grinnell; Kansas State vs Kansas; Oregon vs Washington; Southern Methodist vs Rice; Texas A&M vs Texas Christian; Tulane vs Vanderbilt; and Washington State vs Oregon A&M.

A large occasion? If it was any smaller, the Grand canyon of the Colorado would have a rival.

New York—It costs young musicians about $150,000 a year to make their debuts in New York. The average expense is $800, the object being to obtain New York press notices before appearing in other cities. The National Broadcasting company and the National Music league are seeking to arrange radio debuts that will cost nothing.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

for Modern Streets

TIMES have changed and the streets of yesterday are as obsolete as a 1907 motor car. Now streets must be specially designed for durability, safety and uninterrupted use. Resilience is built into the modern vehicle. Its roadway must be rigid, maintaining an even surface under impact, wear and temperature. The concrete street meets these requirements perfectly—and it is the safest pavement wet or dry.

"WATER HOLE"

Another Zane Grey master story makes a Paramount master picture. "The Water Hole" at the Grand, with Jack Holt in the lead role and Nancy Carroll supporting, seems headed for universal screen honors. Beautiful technical scenes bring to the screen all the amazing splendor of the Arizona desert. These sequences reveal the true loveliness of the moving picture's newest beauty, Nancy Carroll, a symphony in red and blue and pink and white.

The picture is not strictly a Western, however. Unlike most of Grey's stories, the theme centers around an Eastern society locale and Eastern society characters. The desert scenes are none-the-less attractive, however, and the story has all the gripping power for which the author is famous.

The Story

Judith Endicott, daughter of a wealthy father, has her own way in everything. Her father owns desert land in Arizona and Philip Randolph, his partner, comes to New York to see him. Delores, Judith's chum, bets Judith, she can't make Randolph propose. Bert Durland, Judith's suitor, watches glumly. Judith induces her father to take her to Arizona, too. They overtake Randolph at a trading post. To annoy him, Judith flirts with cowboys. Randolph gets Mr. Endicott's permission to kidnap his daughter and tame her. She overhears the plan and is delighted. The experience turns out to be no lark for her, however.

In the Indian cliff dwelling ruins, Randolph makes her cook and work hard and even spans her when she becomes unruly. Judith is sure she hates him.

The cowboys start to lynch Randolph for kidnapping after a rescue, but Durland saves him. They return to the settlement where Randolph is thrown on a train, handcuffed. He finds Judith in the next compartment. The tables are turned, she has kidnapped him. She comes to his arms.

"PORT OF MISSING GIRLS"

The trials that face a young girl alone in a great city furnish the theme for "The Port of Missing Girls," featured at the State theater. Barbara Bedford, as a young college girl, whose credulity leads her to make friends with a handsome young man, played by Malcolm McGregor, who turns out to be a bootlegger, is particularly fine. McGregor, most fortunately, happens to be in love with Barbara, and, because he is a bootlegger, has access to the villain's home. Thus, when Barbara has been missing for some time and her family is frantic with fear and suspense, Malcolm comes to the rescue.

Backshot Awakens Denver Couple Who Sleep On Haystack

Denver, Oct. 18.—The precedent of only wild turkeys sleeping on top of hay stacks proved the undoing of efforts of an unidentified Denver society couple to spend a peaceful night under the stars.

One morning bright and early, Bozo, faithful canine of Farmer J. R. Stenewitz, came dashing up the stairs to his master's bedside. The dog expressed a desire, as only dogs can do, for Stenewitz to follow, for something was wrong in the field close by.

The good old farmer followed the dog, but as a precaution, took along his shot gun. The dog leaped and bounded ahead, until he came to a hay stack.

Stenewitz seeing something on top of the huge mound, aimed carefully and stood in waiting for the wild turkeys he thought must be there to spread their wings in the early dawn and to fly away. Instead of wings spreading, a blanket spread to the breeze.

Notwithstanding, the farmer shot his musket.

"I'm shot," came a woman's scream from the lofty hay and a couple clad in silk pajamas scrambled to the ground and after explaining to Farmer Stenewitz that they slept on the stack merely for the novelty of "hitting the hay" in some out of the ordinary place, dashed away to the city in their high-powered motor car, none the worse for their experience.

Homemade Pickles and Relishes

Homemade pickles and relishes are always enjoyed and may be made in great variety at small cost. Red or green pepper, if used in relishes, are much nicer and more easily peeled if they are placed in the oven for a few minutes until the skins curl. Where tomatoes are used in any of the chopped pickle mixtures, scald off the skins before chopping, also halve and remove some of the seeds if liked. The seed pulp may be used in a tomato soup stock where they are strained out so there is no waste.

Quick Pepper Relish

Peel as directed one dozen each of red and green peppers, remove stems, seeds and pith, then chop fine or grind with a dozen pared Bermuda onions, over with boiling water and let stand ten minutes. Meantime put two quarts of vinegar in the preserve kettle with a pint of sugar, a heaping tablespoonful of salt, and a small spice bag, let come to boiling point. Strain the water from the pepper mixture and put the mixture into the vinegar. Cook for a half hour, skim, and the quantity should have reduced to about a quart. Remove the spice bag and place in small hot dry jars. Excellent with cold meats.

String Bean Relish

Break four quarts of stringless green beans in short lengths and boil in slightly salted water until tender, then drain thoroughly. Put into the preserve kettle a pint of vinegar, a pound of brown sugar, a teaspoonful of salt, a half teaspoonful of celery seed, a pint of sliced onions, a small tumbler of dry mustard. Mix and allow to come to boiling point, stir until well mixed, then add the beans and let simmer together for ten minutes, stirring frequently. Then mix together a level teaspoonful of turmeric and a heaping tablespoonful of flour, moisten with water and stir until all lumps are out. Then add a little of the pickle juice and when smooth mix all together and thicken the pickle gravy. Put into hot dry half-pint jars and seal hot.

Spiced Grapes

This is good with cold meats. Take seven pounds of ripe and perfect black grapes, remove the skins and put the pulps in a pint of water and boil gently until soft, then put through a colander to re-

New Dresses for The School Girl

By MAE MARTIN

Thousands of mothers with daughters of high school or college age, have problems like this Little Rock, Arkansas, mother. She says: "I don't believe I could have put my daughter through the last two years of high school and college without the help of Diamond Dyes. Dresses long out of style and faded were made new with a package or so of Diamond Dyes and the addition of a few dozen buttons and a little braid. Sometimes two dresses were combined and brought up to date in lines that gave no hint of their past. People never knew they were re-dyed when I used Diamond Dyes. They never take the life out of cloth or make it limp. They always make things fresh, crisp and bright."

Diamond Dyes are true dyes, like those used when the cloth was made. Tinting with them is easy as bluing and dyeing only takes a little more time. Insist on Diamond Dyes and save disappointment. They never streak, spot or run.

My handsome new book, "Color Craft," will help you with your clothes and home furnishing problems. 64 pages of dollar-saving suggestions, fully illustrated in colors. It's FREE! Simple write Mae Martin, Home Service Dept., Diamond Dyes, Burlington, Vermont.

SAVE SOUVENIRS IN ISLAND HOME OF NAPOLEON I.

Paris, Oct. 18.—While all of Paris was discussing and censuring the latest play of Maurice Rostand, "Napoleon IV," the inauguration of a museum in the home of his celebrated ancestor, Emperor Napoleon I, was being held in the little island of Aix on the Bay of Biscay.

This historic mansion, the tallest on the island, is the only one of all the different imperial homes which was built under Napoleon's own orders and it was here that he passed the days of July 12, 13, 14 and 15 of 1815, the last days he spent on French soil before going to England.

It stands in the center of this isolated piece of land which has seen many military struggles and bears the following inscription:

"To the memory of our immortal Emperor Napoleon I—July 15, 1815. Everything about him was sublime, both his glories and his reverses. And his respected name soars over the universe."

All of the furnishings have been preserved and stand just as they did when Napoleon used the house. Visitors will also find the room of the Little Corporal especially interesting, for it was here that the great Frenchman, defeated and proscribed, paced the floor, trying to decide whether to give himself up or flee to America.

Said to be the smallest point in France, the little island of Aix once received the greatest monarch.

COLUMBIANA

Improvements to a number of local business properties are now under construction. Work on the remodeling of the Schlag property, corner of South Main and East Friend streets, was completed early this week and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams moved their household goods Tuesday in the second floor, their goods having arrived from Charleston, W. Va. As soon as their fixtures are ready, the store room will be occupied. At the rear of this property the front of the warehouse of the Lehman hardware store was torn down and will be rebuilt, as it was in an unsafe condition. Workmen started the first week on the remodeling of the Powers block recently vacated by the Myler pool-room, making it ready for occupancy by the Kroger Grocery company. Joseph Magill is remodeling one of his store rooms on South Main st. near the Y. & S. car line, and is fitting it for living rooms.

A wedding of interest to Columbiana people occurred on Saturday at Cleveland when Miss Gladys Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Webb of Leetonia, became the bride of Richard Cross of Cleveland. The Webbs were Columbiana residents for many years. The attendants were Miss Cross, sister of the groom, and Glen Smith, of Cleveland, also formerly of Columbiana.

Mrs. C. A. McKain entertained members of the Do Drop In club Tuesday afternoon at her home on South Elm st. Later, husbands of the members surprised their wives by taking them for a ride to the Big Tree Inn on the Youngstown road and entertaining them at dinner, which was followed by a party at the Keith-Albee theater. Eight couples were present.

Jack Myler has gone to Sandusky, where he will again be in the pool room business. His son, DeWitt Myler, preceded him several weeks ago, and Mrs. Myler will follow shortly. The Mylers have also sold their interest in the Globe theater to H. W. Lundgren, the manager.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Simpson and family and Miss Florence Hively were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James I. Blackard, Alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Lehman and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Demmer, at Massillon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shontz and daughters, Ethel and Bertha called Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver and family, Alliance.

Mrs. David Lodge has returned from Alliance, where she spent several weeks with her daughter, Miss Mildred Lodge.

Mrs. Ellen Transue of Alliance and Mrs. Charles Boyce of Chester, W. Va., were Monday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Esterly, West Park ave.

Miss Mabel Brungard of North Lima, former Columbiana girl, and graduate of Columbiana High school and Ohio Wesleyan college, has accepted a position as teacher in the Youngstown schools.

Friday will be visiting day in the Columbiana schools, the various teachers visiting other schools in the search for new ideas and methods.

Mr. Ernest Risler and son, Paul, of Salem, visited Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Tidd.

Why suffer with Rheumatism?

You know it cannot be rubbed away

ARE you one of those unfortunate ones who suffer with pains in your muscles and joints, commonly called rheumatism, making you miserable, less efficient, interfering with your working hours, ruining your sleep?

You may have tried many things without relief. Why not try S.S.S.?

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been giving relief in thousands of cases, as testified to in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

"I suffered with rheumatism for a good many years. At times my joints would swell so, I couldn't walk. I tried almost everything. Went to Hot Springs, then finally decided to try S.S.S. I took a course. In a short time the rheumatic pains entirely left me. I am now in perfect health, and want to add that I have tried all kinds of medicines but I think S.S.S. is the best."—Earl C. Campbell, 115 West Main Street, Johnson City, Tenn.

S.S.S. is extracted from the fresh roots of medicinal plants and herbs and gives to Nature what she needs in building you up so that your system throws off the cause.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

HUDSON SUPER 6

A thrilling NEW DISCOVERY in performance and in value

"It made a Hudson owner of me."

"It changed my whole idea of motor values."

"It showed me that high price is not necessary to own a great car."

Thousands of riders talking like this. A great Hudson program of personal demonstration brought these values home with the impact of a new discovery.

We have never heard such praise of a car. People comparing it to cars costing two or three times as much. Saying it is the easiest riding car they ever drove—saying it is smoother—saying it outperforms all cars of their experience.

In this special month of personal demonstration thousands have ridden in the advanced Hudson Super-Six.

Even those who owned and admired Hudson Super-Sixes of previous issue, have no conception of the superlative quality expressed both mechanically and in body beauty of the great Hudsons of today.

The extraordinary speed of Hudson getaway is but a single expression of the brilliant activity of the New Hudson Super-Six, which is carried on to every phase of performance. And with it a gasoline efficiency that alters all previous standards.

A single ride will explain why this has been the most enthusiastically accepted Hudson ever built.
